

Choose the right minister for

Your Wedding Ceremony

*Make it inspiring, spiritual,
unique
and beautiful.*

Your Wedding Ceremony is the centerpiece of your wedding day. It should express your love in the most inspiring way.

I officiate at the weddings of many couples who describe themselves as spiritual but not religious, couples who are not formal members of a church, and couples who are of different faiths. I can help you craft a ceremony that is perfect for your situation and your desires.

You may want to include a candlelighting ritual, an ethnic custom, a favorite reading, or a loving acknowledgment of children. These are just some of the special expressions that can be woven into your ceremony.

I invite both of you to meet with me over a cup of tea to design your wedding ceremony. There is no obligation.

Then, if you feel comfortable and choose to have me officiate at your wedding, you can relax and feel confident that the heart of your wedding - the Wedding Ceremony itself - will be a beautiful and uplifting experience for you and your guests.

Rev. Janis Hart O'Kelley is an Interfaith Minister, ordained at
The Cathedral of St. John the Divine
in New York City.

jan@thelittlegarden.org

520.622.3343